Automated reminders and clear instructions keep you informed and minimize confusion.

Enhanced Access

Continuous availability of interview slots facilitates more instances of quicker completion, ensuring faster access to benefits. From document submission to interview scheduling and case status updates, SNAP Connect works around your schedule with no in-person meetings required.

How it works

Initial Contact: You'll receive a text alert notifying you that your application or recertification has been received (if you are registered for text). Expect a call within three business days to schedule your interview. A reminder notice will also be mailed, detailing steps to take in case you missed the call.

Depending on your service provider, most should receive a phone call with caller ID from 1.855.697.4347 State of Rhode Island.

Answering the Call: If you answer the call, you'll be asked if you're ready to complete your interview. If so, you'll be connected to a DHS Eligibility Technician who will guide you through the interview. Process complete!

Missed Call Instructions: If you don't answer, you can call DHS back during business hours (8:30 AM – 3:00 PM EST) to Complete Your Interview Within the Designated Time: After the initial call, it is recommended to complete the interview within 4 days for SNAP expedited or 12 days for regular applications to help ensure a timely decision.
